

Welcome to Moche

---

Discover the vibrant essence of Peru through flavours and traditions. Our wine selection has been carefully curated to complement the richness of Peruvian gastronomy, shaped by indigenous heritage and centuries of Spanish, African and Asian influences.

Like our kitchen, our wines tell a story of origin and passion. From crisp, mineral whites that pair beautifully with ceviche to elegant reds that enhance our smoky spices, every bottle has been chosen to bring balance, discovery and pleasure to your table.

We work with producers who respect their land, honour tradition and create authentic wines with personality. Alongside renowned wine regions, you will also find exciting labels chosen to surprise and inspire. We hope this selection enriches your culinary journey through our cuisine.

Take your time, explore, and allow us to guide you.

Salud y bienvenidos a Moche

— WHITE WINES —

Elegant & Energetic · Fresh, vibrant & mineral

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Glass | Bottle |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------|--------|
| VerdejoAnalivia · Rueda, Spain · VerdejoFresh and expressive with notes of citrus, white peach and fennel. Clean, lively and easy-drinking.                                                                                                          | 8.50  | 48     |
| “V”Grüner Veltliner · Kamptal, Austria · Grüner VeltlinerBursting with aromas of green apple, citrus, rhubarb and freshly cut hay. Crisp and dry in style, with a subtle hint of white pepper that adds character and spice.                         | 8.50  | 48     |
| Pinot GrigioCantina Meran · Alto Adige, Italy · Pinot GrigioBright and delicate with aromas of orange blossom, apple, pear and exotic fruits. Smooth, refreshing and wonderfully approachable.                                                       | 8.50  | 48     |
| Sauvignon Blanc “Civis”TerraNoble · Casablanca Valley, Chile · Sauvignon BlancCrisp and aromatic with lime, grapefruit, fresh herbs and tropical fruit. Bright acidity and a refreshing finish.                                                      |       | 48     |
| “Fallegro” Langhe FavoritaGianni Gagliardo · Piemonte, Italy · Favorita (Vermentino)Light, floral and refreshing with 4 months ‘sur lie’ ageing. Notes of citrus blossom, grapefruit, almond and soft minerality. Delicate and beautifully balanced. | 14.50 | 65     |

— WHITE WINES —

Golden & Creamy · Round, rich & textured

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | Glass | Bottle |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------|--------|
| ChardonnayIntipalka · Ica Valley, Peru · ChardonnayFull-bodied and smooth with a warm, tropical character. Ripe apple, tropical fruit and soft vanilla notes supported by gentle oak influence.                                                    | 7.50  | 43     |
| Rioja Blanco Battonage CrianzaAltanza · Rioja, Spain · Viura, Sauvignon BlancMade from 70-year-old vines. Complex, structured and well-balanced with 12 months of ageing. Aromatic with apple, pear, citrus and bakery notes.                      |       | 65     |
| “Anjou Expression Blanc”Domaine Trottières · Loire Valley, France · Chenin BlancRich and elegant with ripe stone fruit, toasted almonds, creamy texture and subtle hints of oak from 8 months of ageing.                                           |       | 55     |
| “Nala Blanco”Vega Clara · Ribera del Duero, Spain · Albillo MayorLimited edition, only 1,032 bottles made! Aged for 11 months in French oak barrels and made from very old vines. Very clean, pure and creamy with aromas of pineapple and lychee. |       | 85     |

— WHITE WINES —

Aromatic & Exotic · Floral, spicy & expressive

|                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Glass | Bottle |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------|--------|
| Riesling “Kreuznacher”Zehn Morgen · Nahe Valley, Germany · RieslingCrisp and mineral-driven with green apple, lime zest and subtle floral notes balanced by vibrant acidity.         | 13.50 | 60     |
| GewürztraminerRottensteiner · Alto Adige, Italy · GewürztraminerHighly aromatic with lychee, rose petals, exotic spices and tropical fruit. Rich, perfumed and intensely expressive. |       | 68     |

— ROSÉ WINES —

Summer in a Glass · Fresh, juicy & sun-drenched

|                                                                                                                                                                                       | Glass | Bottle |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------|--------|
| Vinho Verde Rosé                                                                                                                                                               | 7.50  | 43     |
| Cesteira · Vinho Verde, Portugal · Vinhão, Borraçal, EspadeiroLight and refreshing with wild strawberries, raspberries and bright acidity. Crisp, playful and slightly sparkling. |       |        |

|                                                                                                                                                                                   |      |    |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|----|
| “Vilandria”                                                                                                                                                                | 8.50 | 48 |
| Les Quatre Tours · Provence, France · Grenache, Cinsault, SyrahElegant and dry with delicate red berries, peach and floral aromas. Soft, fresh and beautifully Mediterranean. |      |    |

— RED WINES —

Soft & Juicy · Smooth, fruity & approachable

|                                                                                                                                                            | Glass | Bottle |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------|--------|
| Estate Carménère                                                                                                                                    | 7.50  | 43     |
| TerraNoble · Central Valley, Chile · CarménèreSmooth and spicy with blackberries, dark chocolate, green pepper and smoky herbs. Soft and approachable. |       |        |

|                                                                                                                                                           |      |    |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|----|
| Malbec                                                                                                                                             | 8.50 | 48 |
| Intipalka · Ica Valley, Peru · MalbecVelvety and fruit-forward with ripe plums, blackberries and soft spice notes. Smooth tannins and an easy finish. |      |    |

|                                                                                                                                                                                              |      |    |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|----|
| Valpolicella                                                                                                                                                                          | 9.50 | 55 |
| Balerin · Veneto, Italy · Corvina, Rondinella, MolinaraFresh and elegant with sour cherries, red berries and subtle herbal notes like cinnamon. Juicy, vibrant and beautifully balanced. |      |    |

— RED WINES —
Elegant & Earthy · Refined, layered & silky

|                                                                                                                                                                  | Glass | Bottle |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------|--------|
| Pinot NoirRegnard · Burgundy, France · Pinot NoirElegant and silky with red cherries, forest floor, subtle spices and delicate earthy complexity. | 13.50 | 60     |

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |  |     |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|-----|
| Pinot NoirWijnkasteel Genoels-Elderen · Haspengouw, Belgium · Pinot NoirOnly made in the best years from the best vineyards. Perfect harmony between rich flavours, tannins, complexity and the pure elegance of Pinot Noir. Aged for a total of 36 months in oak and bottle. |  | 120 |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|-----|

— RED WINES —
Bold & Spiced · Dark fruit, warmth & intensity

|                                                                                                                                                                                               | Glass | Bottle |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------|--------|
| Rioja CrianzaConde de Tresaguas · Rioja, Spain · Tempranillo, Graciano, GarnachaSmooth and structured with dark cherries, vanilla, cedar wood and warm spices from oak ageing. |       | 45     |

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |  |    |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|----|
| “Demuerte Gold”Winery On Creations · Yecla, Spain · Monastrell, Syrah, GarnachaIntense and ripe with black fruit, cocoa, and spices like nutmeg and cloves. Hints of toasted oak. Bold, expressive, almost liquorish. A wine that’s to die for. |  | 60 |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|----|

— RED WINES —
Deep & Decadent · Rich, powerful & unforgettable

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | Glass | Bottle |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------|--------|
| “Volte-Face Tinto”Wines of Change · Alentejo, Portugal · Alicante Bouschet, SyrahSmooth and warming with jammy notes, herbs, vanilla and coco from 12 months of oak ageing. A symbol of luxury and new beginnings. |       | 55     |

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |  |    |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|----|
| Amarone della ValpolicellaScriani · Veneto, Italy · Corvina, Rondinella, MolinaraFull-bodied and luxurious with dried cherries, figs, dark chocolate and tobacco. Intense, velvety and long-lasting. Made from sun-dried grapes. |  | 95 |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|----|

— DESSERT WINE —
Sweet Finale · Lush, honeyed & elegant

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Glass | Bottle |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------|--------|
| Coteaux du LayonDomaine des Hauts Perrays · Loire Valley, France · Chenin BlancManually harvested. Beautifully sweet with honey, apricot, candied citrus and floral notes like acacia, balanced by refreshing acidity. | 8.50  | 45     |

— SPARKLING —
Crisp & Celebratory

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | Glass | Bottle |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------|--------|
| Cava BrutRabetllat i Vidal · Penedès, Spain · Macabeo, Xarel·loFresh and lively with fine bubbles, citrus zest, green apple and delicate floral notes. Elegant, refreshing and perfect to start the evening. | 8.50  | 45     |

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |  |    |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|----|
| “Zilveren Parel”Wijnkasteel Genoels-Elderen · Haspengouw, Belgium · ChardonnayRefined and creamy sparkling wine, crafted in the Champagne method and aged in Burgundy barrels, with brioche, ripe citrus, toasted almonds and a delicate minerality. Sophisticated and beautifully layered. |  | 85 |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|----|